

Work Breakdown Structure

Work Breakdown Structure

- Index Number :5200104020
- Name: Meshach Opoku Boadi
- Course Title : Project Management in ICT
- Course CODE: ITC 354

Explanation of some Jargons

Make-or-buy analysis: make analysis what will be bought.

Benchmarking: Looking at the standard of a well-known company and mimicking it. Measuring against best industry .

Architectural Design: consider the high-level structures of system/ arranging different part of a building (System) as in construction.

Reporting Need: Needs of user/customer are written and a report is made from it.

Authentication and security: grant access to authorize user of the Application

Prototype is the version first built to given to user in case there is need for upgrade is added or it is built to enable developer show or communicate effectively to the understanding of stakeholders

Closure is about bringing project to a halt. Hence closure meeting is done at last part.

Functionality test: To see it features works correctly

Quality test: to check quality of application